PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT GEIGER'S MOTION TO DISMISS

Plaintiff Gordon Roy Parker, in the above-styled action, hereby moves this court to strike from the record, the Motion To Dismiss filed by Defendant Geiger, and in support thereof, submits the following:

1. The motion, and supporting memorandum/brief, is seventy-eight pages in length, with hundreds of pages of exhibits spanning five volumes.[1]

2. Judge Bartle's procedures, as published on this Court's website, state that:

> Except with leave of Court for good cause shown, no supporting brief and no brief in opposition shall exceed twenty five (25) pages

3. The Motion is poorly structured, incomprehensible, ridiculously long, and it is impossible for Plaintiff to frame a practical response.

---

[1] The Motion To Dismiss from Defendant Geiger has not yet appeared on the docket. It was, however, mailed to Plaintiff on September 29, 2005.

RELIEF SOUGHT

WHEREAS, for the reasons averred herein, Defendant Geiger's Motion To Dismiss should be stricken from the record.

This the 17th day of October, 2005.
